ABOUT ASIAN FAMILY SUPPORT SERVICES OF AUSTIN (AFSSA)

AFSSA is a non-profit organization located in Austin, Texas with a staff of thirty-seven who are passionate about breaking the cycle of violence in Asian and immigrant communities. Through education, advocacy, and self-advocacy, we empower Asian survivors of sexual violence, domestic violence and human trafficking by improving their access to services, and increasing the community's awareness of the various forms of gender-based violence and oppression.

AFSSA supports our dedicated team of professionals by providing medical, dental, and vision insurance at no cost to our employees. Paired with a generous annual time-off policy, AFSSA demonstrates a level of care for our employees not seen in many workplaces. Time-off includes up to: 208 hours of paid time off; 40 hours of Floating Holidays; 48 hours of Official Holidays; and Comp time. AFSSA also offers a 401k retirement program with an employer match.

Guided by our core values of Prevention, Advocacy, Responsiveness, and Transformation, AFSSA provides high quality, client-centered, and strength-based survivor and community services in Central Texas.

POSITION SUMMARY

Reporting to the Director of Client Services, the Sexual Violence Program Manager is responsible for the operation of the agency's sexual violence client services and advocacy. The Manager ensures accessible, trauma-informed, and client-centered intake processes for all clients across all programs and is ultimately accountable for client experience and program quality. The manager participates in program development and planning, evaluations of services, and manages budgets and fund source compliance. The manager will make recommendations about business, administrative, and operations procedures and protocols that support compliance, improve client service delivery, and align with all agency efforts. The Manager trains and coaches advocates to deliver the full spectrum of direct client services, including hotline and intake services. The Manager is responsible for the development and appropriate use of project management tools to ensure grant deliverables are timely, employee performance is tracked, and funder compliance and all required documentation are maintained. The Manager provides subject matter expertise about the dynamics of sexual violence and sexual assault. The Manager will be an external representative for AFSSA, in collaboration and close coordination with the agency's Executive Leadership Team. Managers operate with a high degree of latitude for independent judgment and initiative within the agency's strategic goals, policies, and funder requirements. Managers ensure that agency values and goals are applied to program implementation and supports the activities of the Leadership Team.
